Maderacre is an equal opportunity employer, and no person is to be discriminated against because of race, religion, color, sex, age, national origin, ancestry, marital status, sexual orientation, military status or unfavorable termination from military service, citizenship status, or physical or mental handicap (Civil Rights Act of 1964; 42 U.S.C. § 2000e).

Beyond operating under the requirements of law and the principles in the FSC core labor standards, Maderacre believes from an ethical point of view that no employee shall be subject to constraints and restrictions that prevent them from freely forming and exercising opinions or developing personally and professionally (U.S. Const. amend. I).

We are committed to a work environment in which all individuals are treated with respect and dignity. Everyone has the right to work in a professional atmosphere that promotes equal employment opportunities and prohibits discriminatory practices, including harassment.
