

PUBLIC ENGAGEMENT

Maderacre is committed to finding additional sources of economic income from sustainable forest management. In this way, the company aims to maintain its high standards of forest management and social responsibility. Specifically, the company will design and implement a business strategy to access payment for ecosystem services for biodiversity conservation.